Policy Guidelines on Zero Tolerance for Ragging

Introduction

It is a common practice in many colleges where senior students abuse, humiliate and harass the juniors. We at Aurora's PG College (MBA) consider the following as elements or signs of ragging which is prohibited in the college.

- Any conduct by words or act which has the effect of teasing, treating or handling with rudeness any fresher/student
- Indulging in rowdy/indiscipline activity likely to cause annoyance, hardship, physical or psychological harm or fear or apprehension in any fresher or student
- Asking any student to do any act which has the effect of causing or generating a sense of shame, torment or embarrassment so as to adversely affect the physique or psyche of any student
- Any act that affects the mental health and self-confidence of student with or without an intent to derive a sadistic pleasure or showing off power, authority, superiority on student over any student.

Ragging is strictly prohibited

- within the college campus including institution/ department as well as on public transportation system outside the campus
- No person including students, staff and faculty members shall participate or abet or propagate ragging in any form.

Punishment in case of any ragging incidents:

- Cancellation of admission
- Suspension from attending classes, expulsion from hostel
- Debarring from representing the institution in any events/festivals/functions etc
- Debarring from Test, Examination or other evaluation processes
- Punishable under IPC provisions for registering of FIR

Measures for curbing ragging:

- a) During admission/registration:
Every student will go through the anti-ragging policy and obtain declaration of adherence.
- b) Collect all required personal details of students at the time of registration
- c) Conduct awareness programme on anti-ragging for both including and existing students to educate the consequences
- d) Orientation session emphasising a culture of respect and camaraderie.
- e) Formation of Anti-Ragging committee consisting of 5 senior management representatives to ensure a ragging free campus.

Reporting procedure in case of any incident of ragging:

- The anti-ragging committee encourages the aggrieved to lodge any such complaint, collect the evidence, investigate, examine, make a report and recommend the punishment to the president of the college
- Helpline numbers are displayed on prominent places for the student to contact the concerned authorities.

The Controlling and Monitoring Body of College for compliance of the prescribed regulations:

In the event of emergency the students/ parents in distress owing to ragging may use National Anti Ragging Helpline 1800-180-5622 (toll free), and /or, write to Website: www. Antiragging.in. From the college side they can also contact apgcm.edu.in and/or mobile no. 9100000741/ 9100000280 any time.
